

Saturday Morning

Dearest Eric -

I was surely glad to get your letter from Washington - but listen, honey, I wish you'd tell me quick whether you have any money to send me or not. Will have to make a payment for that chus. some way, & if you haven't anything to spare - please tell me quick, so I can write to Stanley & see if I can borrow it. I wish you'd please tell me P.D.Q. what to do. Didn't you get the letter I wrote away before the 15th of the month? I'm tired out from worrying over things - so please tell me what to do - + for heaven's sake - tell me before the end of the month. I was supposed to pay it the 15th.

 Last night I went down the river. There were eleven of us. We had lots of fun. Today I guess I'll go to the beach. I'll have to be alone so much after today, that I don't want to be by myself over Sunday.

It's a little bit cooler today, & believe me, dear, I'm thankful. The hot weather was about finishing me, & I guess it was hard on you too.

It's nine o'clock, now, & I must stop. I'll be loving you all the time, dearest, & just waiting to see you again.
 Please take good care of yourself, & don't work too hard - all my love is yours -
 always
