

Wednesday Night.

Dearest Girl,

I just got your Special Delivery Trac. & your letter of Mon. AM. came to-night. I sure was glad to get them. I have been wearing them out ever since reading them over & over.

I wrote my last letter to you Mon. PM. & I hope you have it by this time. —

Tuesday night Paul Collins came over & brought a bunch of music along and we had a regular Jazz Party. Mr. Howell wants us to perform for the Sunday School & the music he liked best was the latest ragtime. ~~time~~ We didn't tell him that, you can bet.

Pat's Mother had a birthday yesterday & Pat asked Ruth & I to come down to a little celebration.
I wanted to stay home & write to you dear, but they thought it was foolish so I consented to go down for a short time. We had lots of Victrola music & danced a little. Refreshments etc, & I didn't get home until 11:30 P.M. I was too sleepy to write then, so please excuse me. It is still quite cold & windy here. I wish it would warm up a bit. I have been trying to locate the place to buy Md. licenses for the motor-cycle. I found the place to-day but they close up at 4 P.M. I'm going to try & catch him to-morrow night. Wait until you see what I had put on it for your benefit to-day. It is a shirt guard & is a very bright Red & you can see me coming for a mile now.

Am sorry you didn't enjoy your ride on the train but am glad that you got there O.K. in the end. You must have been about tired out when you finally arrived at Kingsley. Did your folks meet you alright?

You sure had some crowd ~~at~~ home Sunday.
 Did you remember me to them all?

Alma, I'm so glad that you haven't forgotten me - even for a minute.
 You know I have been thinking of you all the time & I felt sure you were thinking of me too.

I sure do know how you feel when it seems as tho something was missing ~~or~~ lacking. I feel that way ~~every~~ time I move now, & did feel the same way when I was home at Christmas time.

Mr. Havell has gone to the Fire Engine House to hold services to-night.

Ruth & I were playing over some popular music that Paul left here but I quit & came up here to write you. I'm not going to let anybody stop me from writing to you to-night.

I expect I will go to Choir rehearsal to-morrow night. I hope I get more mail from you to-morrow.

 You don't know how lonesome it is here, to come home after office & not even have a letter, & you so far away. If you have time I wish you would write every day dear. Just a short note will make me feel better. I will try & write to-morrow night again. Please remember me to all your folks, even if I don't know them all.

Will be looking for the long letter you promised me to-morrow night. Am going to bed just as soon as I finish an application of cold steel to some pin feathers on my chin.

Please remember that I am thinking of you every minute & counting the hours now til' 4:40 Sunday P.M.

Good Night Dear. -

all my Love to You dear, Eric
