

Tuesday Morning.
Brighton, Mass.

Dear Alma,

I guess this will be my last chance to write you before I get back. I intended to write yesterday but couldn't find the time. Since I wrote you Saturday I have been roaming over the country quite a bit. Oh, I am wondering if you are feeling better by this time

I surely hope the Mumps have deserted you for good by this time. Also your tooth-ache. I am so sorry that you have been sick over Christmas.

Saturday afternoon
Dick & I went to Palis Theatre in Worcester. In the evening we both stayed at home like good boys & played cards with his mother & sister.

Sunday morning we all went to a big church there & heard a mighty fine sermon.

After dinner I had to make a quick get-a-way for the station to catch a train for Westboro. I went to the hospital & met my Mother there.

We also met my Uncle & he took us to Marlboro to see some more relatives of mine whom I haven't seen since I came back from France. We got back to Framingham rather late & I beat it for the "feathers" pretty quick.

Monday morning I came to Boston & went to see if my glasses needed fixing. They evidently did as he is changing one lens.
I also went after my Sax, but it wasn't finished so this morning I will try my luck again.

After lunch I came to Brighton to see Chester Parson. I went skating last night & had a fine time. Gee, I hate to leave this perfectly good skating here & come down there where they don't have any winter sports. We played cards for a time after we got home. This morning Chet. had to beat it away early as he gets to work at 7 a.m. How would

you like to get to work at that time in the morning?

I am going after my
Sax. & glasses this a.m.
& also to buy a ticket
back to Wash. & you.

I have a Dentist's appointment in Framingham at 3:30 this afternoon.

This evening Mother, Lura & I are going out for a call. & also to try my Sax. out. They have no piano where they live.

I will be busy

7,

to-morrow getting ready to come back. I expect Mather & I will stop in Brighton on the way to the train for another call. I am leaving here Wednesday night at 7:30 P.M. & will arrive in Washington Thursday A.M. - if the train is on time I will get there at 8:35
A.M. I do hope that you can meet me dear, but if you don't feel just fine don't try to do it. I shall be looking for you anyway at the gate when I come out.

I will have to stop now & return some skates I borrowed & go to Boston. Will see you Thursday dear & I sure will be counting the minutes until then.

All my Love to you dear,

Eric
