

Sunday Evening

my Ownest Dearest Eric -

Husbands and wives
shouldn't be separated - should they? For the very best way you
can arrange it - it
gets mighty lonesome - doesn't it dear? But honest, old pal, you'd be surprised at what a brave little girl
you left - I'm all
grown up now - like
I used to be long ago.

and not at all the 12

body I am the minute

you are near - But

Price - dearest - yours

the wonderfullest boy

ever hope to know -

you can know all

over - and leave your

love right down in

my heart - when

it always has been

of out feel you -

but I can feel your love all the time -

of that's what gives

3) me courage, to wait.
I know you'll come back, cause men always come back to where they left their love -
and wont it be
just glorious - just
to hear your heart
say - I love you, I love you - again?

To know you - was
good - to be your friend - was excellent -
to be your sweetheart
was joy beyond
measure - but to be

4) your really, truly, wife:
is supreme - the highest privilege any woman
ever had - You have been so good to me -
and my poor little self gets so lost in the largeness of your heart & the greatness of your love, that there's no getting out - I'm yours forever -
and all that a man
hopes for in the girl he loves, I want you to find in me.

I could write on,
& on & on - but you

know I love you - + (5)
you dont know the news - so here goes -

Today my Chinese
boys were out again.
May Jai talked to the C.E. It was very interesting. He also ~~sang in Chinese~~ and
of course we enjoyed
that. They brot me
another box of candy -
what d'ye think
o that?

tomorrow I am
going down to the beach.

to stay over memorial day - that is - if I can make the train
after office - I hope
it will be good swimming.

I have the little
pink dress your mother
made me - its sweet
as it can be - but theres no use describing a dress to a man -

Chin going to school
this summer - I

7) I haven't decided "just what I'll take - but I know that I'm going to keep Alma
good and busy - for
when she loafs -
she gets blue - but
as long as she works
her smiles there all
the while -

Well, my ownest
dearest, belovedest -
boy - I must kiss
you good night

8) + sleep for awhile - Please dont forget to take care of yourself
+ your STOMACH -
and dont Rush - Dream
of me all you want to - + know I am
dreaming of you -

May God bless you,
+ keep you, + when
you work is over -
bring you safely back
to your own little girl
